Hopefully these questions answer your questions, but please give us a call if you need any further clarification

1. Do I need to be good at art to attend an art group?

You do not need to be good at making art or have any prior experience.

The facilitators are skilled practitioners who can guide you through the creative process offering methods and techniques to assist you to express and give form to your inner reality.

2. Which group is right for me?

The best way to choose the right group for you is to see what peaks your interest and desire.

3. Is there a pre request to joining a group or workshop?

There is no pre request, just a curious and desire to explore the method and theme of the workshop or group. If it is therapeutic group, some discussion with the facilitator may be required to ensure your readiness and previous therapeutic experience

4. Do I need to bring anything?

You don't need to bring anything unless the workshop or facilitator has asked you to. However if you have special dietary requirements or preferences there is a fridge and cupboard to store your things.

5. Are groups confidential?

Confidentiality is often a guideline and requirement when engaging in a therapeutic group, however with any other group or workshop, you can choose to have your personal information or preferences confidential. Just share your requests with the facilitator and they will support you.
